2026 MISS RICHMOND & COURT

Portrait courtesy of Marion's Studio

Court Member Abby Bergeon is a senior at Richmond High School. She is a member of the varsity girls golf team, participates in numerous clubs and leadership opportunities, and teaches and competes at JLP's Leap of Faith Studio. Abby plans to attend Grand Valley State University to become an ultrasound technician.

Court Member Lily Schafer is a senior at Richmond High School and participates on the varsity sideline and competitive cheer teams. She is involved in Student Government, SADD, Green Club, and serves at the president of the National Honor Society. Lily plans to attend Grand Valley State University to study biology and genetics before pursuing a career as a genetic counselor.

The 2026 Miss Richmond Court is proud to represent the Richmond Good Old Days Festival and the community they love. United by their passion for leadership, service, and school involvement, these three remarkable young woman exemplify the values of Richmond while inspiring others through their dedication and future aspirations.

Miss Richmond, Ellie Greene, is a senior at Lutheran High North, where she serves as captain of the Mock Trial Team and chairperson of Wonderfully Made. She is also a varsity cheerleader and soccer player. Ellie plans to attend the United States Naval Academy and serve as a military officer.

Together, they are honored to continue the tradition of representing Richmond with pride and community spirit, and serving as ambassadors throughout the year.

2026 GRAND MARSHAL DENNIS BOLEN

The 2026 Good Old Days Festival proudly honors Dennis Bolen for his lifelong dedication to community service. Dennis passed away in May 2026 before he could be fully recognized by the community, but we are proud to celebrate his many years of service to the Richmond area. A member of the Richmond Lions Club for more than 53 years, Dennis served as club president and in numerous other leadership roles.

In 2007, he received the Lions International Melvin Jones Award in recognition of his outstanding service. Dennis was instrumental in establishing the club's scholarship program, which awarded its first scholarship in 1986. Beginning in 2027, one of the club's annual scholarships will be named the Dennis Bolen Memorial Scholarship in his honor.

Dennis also devoted countless hours to local historical organizations and community projects, leaving a lasting legacy of leadership, generosity, and service to the Richmond community.
